February 13, 2022 | Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Last Sunday we heard Jesus call Peter to be his disciple. Jesus then travels with Peter and the other disciples.

Today's gospel reading is the beginning of what is often called the Sermon on the Plain. As we listen to this Gospel, the Beatitudes jar our sensibilities. Those who are poor, hungry, weeping, or persecuted are called blessed. This is, indeed, a Gospel of reversals. Those often thought to have been forgotten by God are called blessed. In the list of "woes," those whom we might ordinarily describe as blessed by God are warned about their peril. Riches, possessions, laughter, reputation . . . these are not things that we can depend upon as sources of eternal happiness. They not only fail to deliver on their promise; our misplaced trust in them will lead to our demise. The ultimate peril is in misidentifying the source of our eternal happiness.

Our vocation as Christians is not to be first in this world, but rather to be first in the eyes of God.

The 2022 Bishop's Annual Appeal funds many ministries that allow us to serve our communities, not just our parish community, but our larger catholic family. Half of Catholic Charities operating budget comes directly from the Bishop's Annual Appeal. Last year alone, Catholic Charities provided food to over 62,402 individuals. And that's only a sliver of the many ministries and programs provided by the Bishop's Annual Appeal that reach the underserved and disadvantaged in our own backyard.

Serving our Communities

SCAN HERE TO MAKE A GIFT

La Campaña Anual del Obispo de 2022 financia muchos ministerios que nos permiten servir a nuestras comunidades, no solo a nuestra comunidad parroquial, sino a nuestra gran familia católica. La mitad del presupuesto operativo de Caridades Católicas proviene directamente de la Campaña Anual del Obispo. Solo el año pasado, Caridades Católicas proporcionó alimentos a más de 62,402 personas. Y eso es solo una pequeña parte de los muchos ministerios y programas proporcionados por la Campaña Anual del Obispo que llegan a los desatendidos y desfavorecidos en nuestra propia área.

2021 Synod 2023

In late 2021, Holy Father Pope Francis called for a two-year process of preparation for the 2023 XVI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops, under the guiding title, "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission."

Pope Francis has said, "The first step in helping the journey of faith is listening." Thank you for sharing your thoughts with Pope Francis! Everyone in eastern North Carolina is invited to provide their thoughts regarding the mission of the Catholic Church, as together we respond to the pope's call to Synod.
The survey will close on Feb. 28, 2022.
